

Abstract submitted for Thirty-Third Annual Victorian Algebra Conference

---

Title: Using random walk distributions for determining Folner sequences.

Author(s): Mr Cameron Rogers

---

Current proofs of the equivalence of Kesten and Folner's criteria for amenability go via spectral theory and Markov Chain operators. We propose a candidate for a Folner sequence derived from the spread of a random walk distribution.